ANSON COLONIAL CAFE

An informal restaurant located on Antara's ground floor, Anson Colonial Cafe serves interpretations of Colonial Malaysian cuisine, originally started by early Hainanese settlers who cooked for their British colonial masters. The space can host up to 25 people internally and 25 people externally.

ABACUS LOUNGE

Abacus Lounge is a glasshouse on the first floor of Antara Restaurant, offering stunning skylight views of KL Tower. Abacus can be converted into a private dining space for up to 20 pax for a sit down dinner. If you are looking at booking the TAR Room, the space can be used as the welcome area for your guests prior to adjourning to their respective meals.

TUNKU ABDUL RAHMAN (TAR) ROOM

Named after the first Prime Minister of Malaysia, this beautifully restored room with its statement walls featuring 50 pop art prints of its name-sake. The room is ideal for private functions of up to 72 guests with direct access to Abacus, the private bar.
